Message from Fr. John

Dear Parishioners,

On behalf of our parish-school community, I want to express heartfelt gratitude to Mrs. Martha Primus for her years of dedicated and exemplary service as Administrative Assistant! Martha retired from that ministry as of January 2, 2026, but she will continue as Pastoral Assistant until this coming summer. I express gratitude on behalf of our community for Martha continuing in that ministry!

I also want, on behalf of our parish-school community, to extend a warm welcome to Mrs. Veniza Menezes (see attached picture) who will serve as Administrative Assistant! Please extend your greetings to Veniza when you see her! We are happy to have you join our Pastoral Team and Staff, Veniza!

“God calls us to touch the lives of our aging, lonely, ill, palliative and dying sisters and brothers with accompaniment, kindness and compassion as the hands and face of Christ. In these sessions, you learn

Reverend Gary Gordon, Bishop of Victoria

Resources from Gospel Weeklies

This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. When talking about this celebration, Cardinal Raniero Cantalamessa asked, “Was it that Jesus also needed to be baptized, as we do? Of course not. With that gesture, he wanted to show that he had become one of us. Above all, he wanted to put an end to the baptism of ‘water’ and inaugurate that ‘of the Spirit.’ It was not the water in the Jordan that sanctified Jesus, but Jesus who sanctified the water. Not only the water of the Jordan, but that of all fonts of the world.”

The newly baptized is a new creature, reborn by water and Spirit. He or she is a child of God, member of the Body of Christ, the Church, and a temple of the Holy Spirit.

Our Heavenly Father pronounces over every child or adult emerging from the baptismal font the same words he pronounced as Jesus emerged from the Jordan: “This is my beloved son or daughter, in whom I am well pleased.”

Let us pray: Heavenly Father, may we appropriate the words that you said during Jesus' baptism, so we may know in our hearts that we are your beloved sons and daughters. Amen.
